

1.0 POLICY STATEMENT

The Board of Directors and management of Rogers Corporation (together with its subsidiaries, unless the context indicates otherwise, the “Company”) operates the Company in the best interests of the shareholders. The Board of Directors and management recognize that related party transactions present a heightened risk of conflict of interest and/or improper valuation (or the perception thereof). Consequently, the Board of Directors has adopted this Related Party Transactions Policy (the “Policy”), under which all Interested Transactions with Related Parties, as those terms are defined herein, shall be subject to approval or ratification, and if necessary, disclosure, in accordance with the procedures set forth below. This Policy is intended to supplement the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics Policy which also governs transactions with related parties. In the event of a conflict between the two documents, this Policy shall control.

2.0 RESPONSIBILITY

The Nominating, Governance & Sustainability Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Committee”) is responsible for establishing, administering and interpreting this Policy.

3.0 APPLICATION

3.1 This Policy applies to Rogers’ executive officers, members of the Board of Directors, nominees for the Board of Directors, beneficial owners of 5% or more of the Company’s stock AND Immediate Family Members of all of the foregoing.

4.0 DEFINITIONS

4.1 “Interested Transactions” include any transaction, arrangement or relationship or series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships (including any indebtedness or guarantee of indebtedness) in which (1) the aggregate amount involved will or may be expected to exceed $120,000, (2) the Company is a participant (even if not necessarily a party), and (3) any Related Party has or will have a direct or indirect material interest (other than solely as a result of being a director or less than percent beneficial owner of another entity).

4.2 A “Related Party” is any (a) person who is, or was (since the beginning of the last completed fiscal year, even if they do not presently serve in that role), an executive officer, director or nominee for election as a director, (b) beneficial owner of greater than 5 percent of the Company’s Common Stock, or (c) an Immediate Family Member of any of the foregoing.

4.3 “Immediate Family Members” include a person’s spouse, parents, stepparents, children, stepchildren, siblings, mothers- and fathers-in-law, sons- and daughters-in-law, and brothers- and sisters-in-law, as well as anyone not falling into one of the foregoing categories who shares such person's household (other than a tenant or employee).

5.0 PROCEDURES

- 5.1 Any person described in Section 3 above who proposes to enter into a potential Interested Transaction or becomes aware of a potential Interested Transaction shall promptly notify the Company's General Counsel of the facts and circumstances of such transaction, including, to the extent known, the following: the Related Party's relationship to the Company and interest in the transaction; the material facts of the potential Interested Transaction, including the proposed aggregate value of such transaction or, in the case of indebtedness, the amount of principal that would be involved; whether the transaction is proposed to be, or was, undertaken in the ordinary course of the Company's and the Related Party's business; who initiated the transaction; if applicable, the availability of other sources of comparable products or services; and an assessment of whether the potential Interested Transaction is on terms that are comparable to the terms available to an unrelated third party or to employees generally.
- 5.2 Upon receipt of the notice described in Section 5.1 above, the General Counsel shall review it and any additional information provided therewith to determine whether the potential Interested Transaction constitutes an Interested Transaction pursuant to the Policy. If the General Counsel concludes that the potential Interested Transaction does not constitute an Interested Transaction under the Policy, the transaction will be handled in accordance with other applicable Company policies, including the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics Policy. If the General Counsel concludes that the potential Interested Transaction constitutes an Interested Transaction under the Policy, the General Counsel shall present the transaction to the Committee.
- 5.3 The Committee shall review the material facts relating to all Interested Transactions that require the Committee's approval and either approve or disapprove of the Interested Transaction, subject to the exceptions described in Section 6 below. If advance Committee approval of an Interested Transaction is not feasible, then at the Committee's next meeting, the Interested Transaction shall be considered and, if the Committee determines it to be appropriate, ratified (or if not ratified, the Committee shall determine if the transaction should be terminated). In determining whether to approve or ratify an Interested Transaction, the Committee will take into account, among other factors it deems appropriate, whether the Interested Transaction is on terms no less favorable to the Company than terms generally available from an unaffiliated third-party under the same or similar circumstances, whether the Interested Transaction is material to the Company, the role the Related Person has played in arranging the Interested Transaction, and the extent of the Related Person's interest in the Interested Transaction.
- 5.4 The Committee has reviewed the Interested Transactions described below in Section 6, "Standing Pre-approval for Certain Interested Transactions" and has determined that Interested Transactions of the type described therein shall be deemed to be pre-approved by the Committee under the terms of this Policy. In addition, the Board of Directors has delegated to the Chairperson of the Committee the authority to individually pre-approve (as applicable) any Interested Transaction with a Related Party (except where the Chairperson is the Related Party) in which the aggregate amount involved is expected to be less than $500,000. At least annually, a summary of each new Interested Transaction deemed pre-approved pursuant to “Standing Pre-Approval for Certain Interested Transactions” below and each new Interested Transaction pre-approved by the Chairperson of the Committee in accordance with this paragraph shall be provided to the Committee for review.

- 5.5 No director shall participate in any discussion or approval of an Interested Transaction in which he or she is a Related Party, except that the director shall provide all material information concerning the Interested Transaction to the Chairperson or the Committee, as applicable.
- 5.6 If an Interested Transaction will be ongoing, the Committee may establish guidelines for the Company’s management to follow in its ongoing dealings with the Related Party. Thereafter, the Committee shall periodically (but no less than annually) review and assess ongoing relationships with the Related Party to see that they are in compliance with such guidelines and that the Interested Transaction remains appropriate.
